Dear Parents/Carers,

We have a rail of good condition second-hand school uniform, including coats, in the school entrance. These items are available for a donation, which should be made to the school office. All money raised will go towards treats for our pupils. If you have any outgrown uniform that is in good condition, that you no longer need, we would be grateful for donations. Thank you. Also, Little Carne Nursery are looking for any good quality fancy dress costumes that your child/children may have grown out of; they would welcome any donations of costumes, suitable for ages 2-6 years. Thank you.

Please can we request that any absences are reported to the school office via email, telephone or school comms. The office cannot access studybugs or Google classroom.

Little Carne Nursery has been learning all about the jungle this week. They have been busy crafting parrots, snakes and elephants. They also enjoyed making an explorer den too! We have finished off the week with a lovely wellie walk in the community to look for signs of winter. Next week the children will be taking part in the Big Bird Watch. Please keep your eyes peeled for birds in your garden. If you have any recycling, please bring some along next week, as we will be doing some junk modeling.

In Towan Class, we have been reading Farmer Duck and thinking of different things we could do with him on his day off. In maths, we have been exploring number staircases. The children have also especially enjoyed looking at past and present toys.

This week, Summers Class have managed to solve the clues to discover who has stolen their superhero. They have worked out that he is called Red 8 and that he is a red octopus. Red 8 has appeared in class and has been watching the children from afar. Also this week, they have enjoyed investigating how to change materials by stretching, squashing, bending and twisting plasticine.

In Porthcurnick Class we have been reading 'How To Train Your Dragon' and using our inference skills to develop our understanding of the key characters. In music, we played pentatonic scales then tried pentatonic melodies with the notes in a different order. In art, we loved our closely observed drawings of dragon eyes, using our mark making skills and leaving areas white to create eyes that seem alive!

This week, in English, Portholland Class have been learning about RMS Titanic, in particular finding out why third class passengers from Ireland made their ill-fated journey across the Atlantic Ocean. The children have learnt many fascinating facts about the ship along the way: did you know that only three of Titanic's funnels actually worked? The fourth one was simply put there to balance the ship's design.

This week, in English, Porthluney Class have been writing non-chronological reports based on The Blitz, including information about rationing, evacuation and shelters. In science, the children have learnt what a source of light is and discuss whether it is natural or man-made. Ask us if the moon is a source of light!

Have a lovely weekend!

Yours sincerely

Kate Douglass

P.E and Sport at Tregony

Pupils have really enjoyed learning to bowl this week with Mr Shaikh, thinking carefully about the different steps and actions that are involved in a successful bowl.

Porthluney and Porthcurnick have been busy with their dance topics and are beginning to put shape to their pieces to perform at the end of the half term.

E-safety and Internet safety

I hope you all received my email earlier this week regarding road safety and supervision of young children at the end of the day. At school, road safety is taught. However, how to keep safe on the road needs to be frequently revisited at home too.

Please follow the link below to find guidance on supporting your children with learning about road safety.
