Tregony School Three Rs

Respectful, Responsible and Resilient

Dear Parent(s)/carer(s),

It has been another exceptionally busy week this week. On Tuesday, we held interviews for our new Year 2 teaching vacancy. We will announce the successful candidate very soon, but it was a very strong field. Mr Challis, was very impressed by pupils' behaviour and attitude to learning. On Thursday, the School celebrated the Queen's Jubilee by holding a tea party outside. Thank you so much to Susie and Kasha, our school cooks, who worked so hard to make a scrumptious lunch, including a traditional cream tea!. Everyone dressed up and made crowns and flags to celebrate the event. Pupils were very kindly presented with a commemorative pin by Louise Julyan and others who are part of Tregony's Jubilee Committee. Then, the whole school paraded down to the village square where they sang some celebratory Jubilee songs with Mrs Paulley, we even got to see the Queen who was in Tregony's hair salon - presumably to get a purple rinse before her celebrations!. Don't forget that our pupils are invited to sing at Tregony's tea party which is being held in the pub car park on Sunday 5th June at 3.00pm. Pupils will be singing at 3.00pm. We have an INSET Day on Friday 10th June; the school will be closed for staff training.

Towan Class have had a lovely Jubilee Week. They have had a Jubilee Morning with Nursery, which was filled with lots of different activities. The children have enjoyed learning all about the queen and the things she loves. They completed their phonics assessments this week, which has shown how hard they have been working. Well done Towan.

This week, Summers Class were introduced to their new text, 'The Disgusting Sandwich'. It all started when Mrs Kent sneezed on her sandwich, then dropped it and finally stood on it! This created a great opportunity to think of some fantastic adjectives to describe the sandwich. We then read the story and wrote some descriptions of the sandwich in the story. Also this week, they have been celebrating the Platinum Jubilee by creating cards for the Queen, bookmarks and flags.

Porthcurnick Class spent a very enjoyable morning on Carne beach this week, creating sculptures of the digestive system, then working on a 30m long sand art landscape! After some games on the sand, we ate our picnic together on the rocks. The children were very well behaved and we thoroughly enjoyed taking them.

Portholland Class have been busy finishing their New York non-chronological reports this week, which have been of an exceptionally high standard and work that they can be very proud of. In addition to this, the children have learnt the key geographical regions in North and South America and many are now planning a visit to the USA!

Porthluney Class have been discussing internet safety in their PSHE lessons and creating posters, as well as learning about justice and fairness in RE. During our jubilee celebrations, they were excellent role models and there are lots of stars in the making in our school play rehearsals!
