How do inspirational people impact on how Humanists live today?
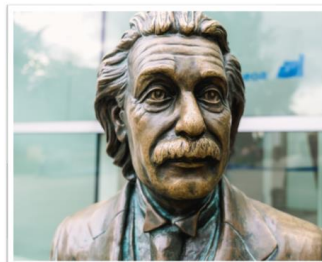

The Happy Human Logo

Key Beliefs:

1. There is no evidence of a god – science gives many answers to things previously attributed to gods e.g. the formation of life

2. We have one life – we need to make the best of it

3. It is our responsibility to treat humans and other living things ethically, fairly and positively

4. We need to take personal responsibility for our actions

5. We have the potential to achieve great things which will benefit humanity and future generations

6. Humanists value freedom, empathy, reason and human rights

7. Humanists respect people's right to hold their own beliefs; however, they are opposed to human rights being violated which can happen in some societies, some of which may be governed by religious law.
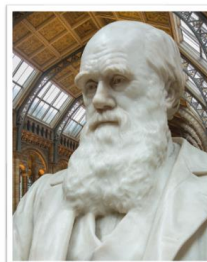

Humanist	a follower of the principles of humanism reason	the power of the mind to think, understand and form judgements.
atheist	someone who doesn't believe in a God or gods.
agnostic	someone who believes you can never know for sure whether God exists or not.
theist	someone who believes that there is a creator God..
empathy	to understand and share the feelings of others
golden rule	treat others how you would want to be treated
Big Bang	how Humanists consider the world was created
Happy Human	symbol associated with Humanism designed to portray the potential of humans and ability to celebrate life.
inspirational	something or someone that encourages, motivates, and excites children, making them feel hopeful and wanting to achieve more
role model	someone who inspires others, especially younger people, to be their best and to live a positive life

Alice Roberts   Albert Einstein   Charles Darwin

atheist   Humanist   difference   Golden Rule criteria   ethical   impact non-religious naturalist   inspiration anthropologist
commonality
Humanism   natural selection   Nobel Prize role-model   palaeopathology   skeleton   archaeology   worldview Physics   actions   evolution
Happy Human   anatomist