

Super Scientists

acoustics	the branch of science concerned with the properties of sound discovery	something that has been discovered or found germs	a microscopic organism, especially one that causes illness gravity	an invisible, magical-like pulling force that Earth has, making things fall down instead of floating away, keeping your feet on the ground, and holding the Moon around Earth and Earth around the Sun invention	something that has been invented or made prism	a prism splits a ray of light into the colours of the rainbow.
satellite	something that kills germs that cause disease scientist	a person who works with science

Timeline

1665	1666	1867	1876	1815	1879	1928	1968

Isaac Newton discovered gravity	Isaac Newton discovered that white light isn't just white; it's a mix of all rainbow colors	Joseph Lister invented antiseptic.	Alexander Graham Bell invented the telephone	Humphrey Davy invented a light bulb.	Thomas Edison invented a long-lasting light bulb.	Alexander Fleming discovered penicillin.	Maggie Aderin-Pocock was born